How to use SSI - Server Side Includes

The following directive needs to be added to the .htaccess file in order to get SSI working on html, shtm, htm and shtml files:

```
AddHandler server-parsed .shtml .html .htm .shtm
```

You can also simply name your files that contain Server Side includes .shtml and you will not need to add anything to your .htaccess file.

Related articles

- .htaccess Robots, Redirects, Rewrites and Password Protected Directories
- Create or edit the .htaccess file
- Restrict access to WordPress admin areas (wp-login.php)
- How to set different PHP versions per directory
- Redirect from HTTP to HTTPS using mod_rewrite
- php_flag and php_value errors, and how to fix them
- Fix ini_set() has been disabled for security reasons
- Execute .html as .php